

How to write a written discussion

How to write a written discussion

Introduction

- should introduce the topic of the discussion
- should make the reader curious and willing to read the discussion
- 1-2 sentences
- or 1-2 sentence & 1 question

f.i.: Nowadays, a lot of people... / It is often said that... / So the question arises: ...?

Let's try it!

Introduce the following Statement:

Supermarkets should be
open all day every day.
(24/7)

How to write a written discussion

Let's try it!

Name pro & con arguments
the following statement:

Supermarkets should be
open all day every day.
(24/7)

You can also give examples
for your arguments!
f.i.: An example for this is...
For instance...

On the one hand...
Auf der einen Seite
First,... / Second,... / Third,...
Erstens, zweitens, drittens,...
Furthermore,...
Außerdem
In addition to that...
Zudem/Darüber hinaus
Finally,...
Schließlich/Schlussendlich
Nevertheless...
Nichtsdestotrotz
For this reason... / That's why...
Deshalb
On the other hand...
Auf der anderen Seite
However,...
Allerdings/Jedoch

How to write a written discussion

Conclusion

- Summarize the most important aspects.
- Don't come up with new arguments!

*To sum up,... / To summarize... /
There are ... (dis)advantages, f.i. ...*

Let's try it!

Summarize 2 pro & 2 con arguments the following statement:

Supermarkets should be
open all day every day.
(24/7)

How to write a written discussion

Your opinion

I think... / In my opinion... / From my point of view... / If you ask me... / As far as I know...

Your suggestion / Compromise

I suggest that... / I think it would be better to... / It would be good to...

Let's try it!

Tell us what you think about the following statement and what you suggest:

Supermarkets should be
open all day every day.
(24/7)

How to write a written discussion

Tattoos – pro or con?

- Please do worksheet 1.
- Find pro and con arguments and mark them with + or -. Are there matching +/- arguments? Color them!
- You can check the solution if you like!
- Now fill out worksheet 2. Decide which arguments are the most important from your point of view and write them down.
- Done early? Get the "Word Search".

Tattoos – pro or con? worksheet 1

1. Read the statements and decide if they are for or against tattoos:
2. Find matching (pairs of) pro+con arguments (opposites) and mark them with colored pencils. You can find an example on the worksheet.
3. You can add own arguments if you like.

pro con

Tattoos last forever.

You can express yourself through tattoos and feel more confident.

Tattoos are expensive.

The pain of getting a tattoo is only temporary.

So many people have tattoos. It's not special any more.

It can be painful to get a tattoo.

You may not like your tattoo after a couple of years.

Getting a tattoo removed is expensive and painful.

The tattoo could fade out after a few years.

You can pick a hidden spot for your tattoo if you are worried about a future job.

If you don't want the tattoo anymore you can get it removed or covered by another one.

Looking at a meaningful tattoo every day can motivate you.

It can be a unique piece of art that no one else has.

If the tattoo fades out after some time you can get a touch-up.

You could get a henna tattoo which fades out after some time.

Tattoos can be a memory of a special time in your life.

Tattoos could cover up scars (from an accident for example).

You may have a harder time finding a job if you have tattoos.

worksheet 2 Tattoos – pro's and con's

Look at the pro and con statements on worksheet 1 again.

What's the most important reason to...
...get a tattoo? ...not get a tattoo?

What's also an important reason to...
...get a tattoo? ...not get a tattoo?

What's another reason to...
...get a tattoo? ...not get a tattoo?

What's YOUR opinion?
Would you get a tattoo? Why or why not?
What do you think is the best age to make such a decision?

Help:
I personally think that... The best age to decide if you want a tattoo is...
I could (not) imagine getting a tattoo because... In my opinion...
I would (not) get a tattoo because... I (don't) like tattoos that show...

Done early? Work on the "Written discussion word search"!

How to write a written discussion

Tattoos – My written discussion

- Now try to write your own written discussion!
- Use the phrases and words from the list I gave you.
- Done early? Work on the "Word Search".

My written discussion

worksheet 3

Write a discussion on the following statement:

Teenagers should be able to get a tattoo without their parent's permission (Erlaubnis)

Introduction:

Today many teenagers

So the question arises:

Main part (3 pro & 3 con arguments):

On the one hand,

On the other hand,

Conclusion (Summary, your opinion, your suggestion):

To sum up, there are a lot of reasons why

In my opinion